Hello Marsha,

Good morning.

I wanted to share with you my slack conversation with Chris. He is one of the key members for PCI-DSS compliance. Though Adam and I built the content, your team poured life into it - 😊

Your leadership and your team have been instrumental in the success of GPS courses. This appreciation belongs to your team as well, and your team deserves all the credit too.

More courses to come. Next one on the list is "Privacy by Design". That is going to raise the bar even further - 😊

Thank you once again!

Adam and Balaji

I just want to say - Thank yo for the first decent and engaging Developer training I've attended.

The content was more than is necessary and I really want to commend the team that developed the training

Balaji Govindan 10:37 AM

Thank you Chris. Adam and I put together this training.

Now that I have to redevelop the Payment Card Data Security training, I have a high bar to meet.
